

April 3, 1969

Harry J. Van Bramer

Harry J. Van Bramer, 80, of 2932 NE 88th Pl., Portland, Ore., a retired carpenter, died Monday in a Portland nursing home.

Mr. Van Bramer was born April 17, 1888, in Lehigh, Iowa. He was married to the former Elizabeth Shornack, who preceded him in death. The Van Bramers operated a grocery business here with Mr. Lamos in the Cassels Building, on the corner. The business was known as Van Bramer-Lamos Co. After dissolving partnership, the business was known as "Van's Cash Grocery." The family moved to Portland in 1936.

He was a member of Carpenters Local No. 226 and Trinity Lutheran Church.

He is survived by two sons, Clair G. of Portland and Kenneth C. of Denison, Iowa; two daughters, Mrs. Lois Kuehnert of Yucalpa, Calif., and Mrs. Marlys J. Juhnke of Portland and seven grandchildren and three great grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Emma Stringer of Iowa City, Iowa.

The funeral was held Wednesday, March 26, at the Gateway Little Chapel of the Chimes with private entombment in Riverview Abbey.